

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

CHEGG, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

VIKASA SWAMI, A/K/A @THEVIKASH,
AND JOHN DOES 1-3,

Defendant.

Case No. 3:22-cv-07326-CRB

~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER GRANTING CHEGG, INC.'S ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO SEAL ITS EX PARTE
APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY
RESTRAINING ORDER AND ORDER
TO SHOW CAUSE FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

THIS COURT, having considered Chegg’s Administrative Motion to File its Ex Parte Application for Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause for Preliminary Injunction Under Seal (the “Motion to Seal”), and other appropriate papers filed contemporaneously therewith, finds compelling reasons exist to support the filing under seal of the documents described in the Motion to Seal. Accordingly:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the following documents shall be filed under seal and sealed from the public record:

Document	Section of Document Subject to Sealing	Ruling
Chegg, Inc.’s Ex Parte Application for Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause for Preliminary Injunction	Document to be Sealed in Entirety	Granted
Declaration of Ryan C. Stevens in Support of Chegg, Inc.’s Ex Parte Application for Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause for Preliminary Injunction	Document to be Sealed in Entirety	Granted

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

Exhibits A-C Attached to the Declaration of Ryan Stevens in Support of Chegg's Ex Parte Application for Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause for Preliminary Injunction	Document to be Sealed in Entirety	Granted
[Proposed] Order Granting Chegg, Inc.'s Ex Parte Application for Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause for Preliminary Injunction	Document to be Sealed in Entirety	Granted

It is so ordered.

Dated: January 2, 2024

The Honorable Charles R. Breyer
United States District Court Judge